

Remote Working

Right now, more people are discovering what it's like to work either at home or away from their teammates as a result of precautions surrounding the Coronavirus (COVID-19). For some, it's a new experience and a steep learning curve. RGO remains committed to supporting you and we are working hard to minimize the impact that COVID-19 is having on you.

What Basics Do I Need:

- Desk/Bench to work on
- Chair
- Monitor Arm
- Lamp
- Simple Storage

How Can RGO Help?

We currently have stock of a variety of all these items available for a curbside pick up today.
